Joyce Wainwright

Following Joyce's death on 10 March, we came together as church with her family and many friends, from the village and beyond, to celebrate knowing her and to give thanks to God for her life.

The service was held on 22 April, the day after what would have been her 90th birthday.

Thank you to everyone who has signed up for providing flowers in the church so far. There are still a number of spaces on the list. If you feel you can put your name against one of the dates that are blank it would be very much appreciated.

Thank you,
